Scriptures to Pray over your child(ren)

Prayer is one of the most powerful and important tools we have as parents. Be intentional about praying over your child(ren). God can and will do amazing things in their lives.

Here are a few prayer prompts to get you started.

MIND:

Father, thank you that my child has the mind of Christ, help them to control their thoughts, words, and actions. Help them to make wise decisions. (Titus 2:6-7; 1 Cor. 2:16)

HEART:

Lord, help my child to have a heart for You and those around them, that they would be compassionate, encouraging, helpful and love others well. (Psalms 86:11; Psalms 51:10-13)

EYES:

Jesus, help my child keep their eyes on You and to see and help those that are around them in need. (Acts 20:35; Heb 12:1-2)

EARS:

Father, thank you that my child has ears to hear You and to understand the truthfulness in every situation. That they will follow after You and other voices in this world they will not follow. Prov. 20:12; Eph. 4:2; John 10:14-16)

HANDS:

Jesus, help my child to be planted firmly in You, that they will know and follow Your truth all their days and be a blessing to those around them. (1Cor. 15:58; Matt 5:16; Psalms 25:5)
